

Appointment of Apia as Port of Entry for certain Islands of the Cook Group.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 11th day of February, 1929.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE SIR J. G. WARD, PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Customs Act, 1913, and the Samoa Customs Consolidation Order, 1923, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the Order in Council of the fourth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, appointing the Port of Apia in Western Samoa as a port of entry for certain islands of the Cook Group therein named, and doth hereby declare that as from the date of this Order in Council the said Port of Apia shall be a port of entry for the Islands of Pukapuka and Nassau in the said Cook Group.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

The Native Regulations (Samoa) Amendment Order, 1929.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 11th day of February, 1929.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE SIR J. G. WARD, PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance of the authority to make regulations for the peace, order, and good government of Samoa conferred upon him by the Samoa Act, 1921, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. THESE regulations may be cited as "The Native Regulations (Samoa) Amendment Order, 1929," and shall come into force on the 25th day of February, 1929.

2. These regulations shall be read with and be deemed to form part of the Native Regulations (Samoa) Order, 1925 (hereinafter called "the principal regulations").

3. The Administrator shall have power from time to time to appoint persons to be known as District Officers, who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred upon them by these regulations or otherwise.

4. The Administrator may from time to time, by notice in writing under his hand published in the Savali, suspend for any period the meetings of the District Council in any district as provided by the principal regulations, and during such period the Administrator may himself exercise all the powers and rights and perform the duties of such District Council, or may delegate, either wholly or in part, the exercise of such powers and rights and the performance of such duties to the Secretary for Native Affairs or any Resident Commissioner or any District Officer.

5. The Administrator may from time to time in like manner suspend for any period the meetings of any Village Committee, and during such period may himself exercise all the powers and rights and perform the duties of such committee, or may delegate the same or any of them in like manner as provided in the last preceding clause.

6. Clause 20 of the principal regulations is amended by striking out the words "preceding clause" and substituting for the same the words "two preceding clauses."

7. The Administrator shall have power to confer upon the Secretary for Native Affairs or any Resident Commissioner or any District Officer all the rights, powers, and duties of any Native official under any ordinance or regulations, including the rights, powers, and duties of Faipule, Fa'amasino, Pulefa'atoaga, and Pulenu'u, but not including those of any Samoan Commissioners appointed under the Samoa Native Land and Titles Commission Order.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
