Importation of certain Publications prohibited.

Customs Department,
Wellington, 14th April, 1929.

IT is hereby notified for public information that the importation of the publications shown in the list hereunder is regarded as being prohibited under the provisions of the Order in Council made on 10th May, 1921, and gazetted on 19th May, 1921, which prohibits the importation into New Zealand of the following goods—that is to say: Any document which incites, encourages, advises, or advocates violence, lawlessness, or disorder, or expresses any seditious intention.

This list is supplementary to that contained in the notification dated 25th May, 1927, which was published in the New Zealand Gazette on 26th May, 1927. These lists include only those publications which have been submitted to the Customs Department and which, after consideration by it, are regarded as infringing the above-mentioned Order in Council.

It should be understood that it does not follow that any document not mentioned in these lists will be allowed to be imported. The onus rests on importers to avoid infringing the provisions of the Order in Council. If any person is in doubt as to whether any publication he desires to import is or is not regarded as prohibited from importation he should communicate with the Comptroller of Customs, Wellington.
