

twenty-five, and amended on the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, and the twenty-third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, regulations were made under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, and its amendments, in connection with the establishing and operation of broadcasting-stations and the sale of apparatus for radio-telegraphy:

And whereas it is desired to amend such regulations in the manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, and of all other powers and authorities in anywise enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the regulations numbered eight, fifty-two, and fifty-five, in the Schedule to the above-recited Order in Council, and in lieu thereof doth hereby make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto; and doth order that the regulations hereby made shall form part of and be read together with the regulations first herein mentioned, and shall come into force on and after the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

SCHEDULE.
REGULATIONS.

8. THE amount agreed to be paid to any person or company with whom or which an agreement is entered into under subsection (2) of section 6 of the Post and Telegraph Amendment Act, 1924, shall not exceed in any case the sum of £1 5s. from the annual fee for each license issued under the Amateur Radio Regulations, 1925, and 45 per centum of the annual fee for each radio-dealer's license issued under these regulations.

Fees and Conditions of Licenses.

52. Radio-dealers' licenses shall be divided into three classes, as follows:—

Class I:—

- (a) Licenses of dealers carrying on business in any of the four main cities—viz., Auckland, Christchurch, Dunedin, Wellington, and within 10 miles by the nearest practicable route of the Chief Post Office at those cities.
- (b) (Portable) Licenses of dealers without any fixed place of business who are not representatives of Class I (a) or Class II licensees.

Class II: Licenses of dealers carrying on business in all other areas.

Class III: (Portable) Licenses of dealers without any fixed place of business who are the representatives of Class I (a), or Class II licensees.

55. (1) The fees payable for each year ending on the 31st day of March in respect of radio-dealers' licenses shall be as follows, payable in advance:—

	£	s.	d.
(a) For a Class I license ..	15	0	0
(b) For a Class II license ..	7	10	0
(c) For a Class III license ..	2	0	0

(2) In the event of a license being granted after the first day of April, the fee shall be paid up to the 31st day of March following at the rate of—

- (a) For a Class I license, £1 5s. per month or fraction thereof.
- (b) For a Class II license, 12s. 6d. per month or fraction thereof.
- (c) For a Class III license, 3s. 4d. per month or fraction thereof.

(3) The fee for the first year, or portion thereof, shall accompany the application.

(4) In cases of renewals, where payment of the above-mentioned fee is not made on the due date, the radio-dealer's license shall automatically lapse.

55A. On payment of the foregoing fees each radio dealer shall have available to him, free of charge, during the currency of his license, the New Zealand patent rights held by Amalgamated Wireless (Australasia), Limited, for the purpose of listening to the programmes of wireless telephone broadcasting stations.

RADIO-DEALER'S LICENSE, CLASS

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon the Minister of Telegraphs by the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, and amendments made thereto, and by the broadcasting regulations made thereunder, M _____, is hereby licensed for a period ending on the 31st day of March, _____, to sell, offer for sale, and have in possession for sale, at his place of business, _____, in the radio district of _____, all kinds of radio apparatus.

This license is issued subject to the regulations aforementioned and to any amendments thereto, and to such further conditions and restrictions, not inconsistent with the said Act, as may be imposed from time to time.

This license also, during the time it remains in force, authorizes the licensee to establish and operate radio receiving-apparatus for demonstration purposes, as if the said apparatus were a radio-receiving station licensed in pursuance of the Amateur Radio Regulations, 1925.

This license makes available to the licensee, free of any additional charge, during the currency of this license, the New Zealand patent rights held by Amalgamated Wireless (Australasia), Limited, for the purpose of listening to the programmes of wireless telephone broadcasting stations.

For the Minister of Telegraphs.

....., Secretary.

License issued:

Date:

....., District Radio Inspector.

NOTE.

(1) This license may not be exercised in respect of any place of business except that mentioned above.

(2) In reference to the receiving-apparatus established and operated under the authority of this license, the licensee must comply with the requirements of the Amateur Radio Regulations, 1925, in respect of radio-receiving stations, and particularly those in respect of the secrecy of public correspondence and the non-use of circuits which unduly energize the receiving antenna.

Registration of Magazines.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 17th day of June, 1929.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, at page 1813, regulations were made under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Amendment Act, 1919, providing for the registration of magazines:

And whereas it is desired to amend such regulations in the manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, and of all other powers and authorities in that behalf enabling him, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the regulation numbered two in the Schedule to the above-recited Order in Council, and in lieu thereof doth hereby make the regulation set forth in the Schedule hereto; and doth declare that such revocation and the regulation hereby made shall take effect from the date of the publication of this Order in Council in the New Zealand Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

2. A MAGAZINE is a periodical publication, with or without advertisements, which contains information of a public character or articles relating to literature, sciences, arts, politics, religion, sport, or some special industry. It must have a legitimate list of subscribers, except in the case of Government publications. It need not be printed or published in New Zealand, but shall be published in numbers at intervals not exceeding twelve months. The title and date or month of publication must be printed on the cover (if any), or, in the absence of a cover, at the top of the first page and on every detached page or piece of paper issued as part of the magazine.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
