Amending Rules for Life-saving Appliances for Ships.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 19th day of August, 1929.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and published in the New Zealand Gazette, No. 85, of the fifteenth day of the same month, Rules for Life-saving Appliances for Ships were made:

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said rules in the manner hereinafter described:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by section one hundred and ninety-seven of the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke clause (c) of subsection two and clause (c) of subsection three of Rule thirteen of the hereinbefore-recited rules, and doth hereby substitute the following therefor:—

(2) (c) With sufficient ships' biscuits to give 8 oz. per day for each person, and with sufficient chocolate in 1 oz. squares to give 2 oz. per day for each person (home-trade ships to carry two days' supply, and ships plying beyond home-trade limits four days' supply); twelve fish-hooks, and three fishing-lines. The biscuits and chocolate mentioned herein shall be kept in airtight and water-tight tanks with screw tops 5 in. inside measurement, each top to have two snugs each  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. deep and  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. diameter, and such receptacles shall be securely fastened in the boats and life-rafts.

(3) (c) With sufficient fresh water to give one pint per day for each person the raft is authorized to carry; with sufficient ships' biscuits to give 8 oz. per day for each person, and with sufficient chocolate in 1 oz. squares to give 2 oz. per day for each person (home-trade ships to carry two days' supply and ships plying beyond home-trade limits four days' supply); twelve fish-hooks, and three fishing-lines. The water shall be kept in air-tight metal tanks or in proper kegs, and shall be kept in such part of the raft as may be approved by the Surveyor. Each water vessel shall have attached to it a dipper or other approved means of getting the water out without waste, and when tanks are used they shall have screw tops  $3\frac{1}{2}$  in. inside measurement, each top to have two snugs each  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. deep and  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. diameter. The biscuits and chocolates mentioned herein shall be kept in airtight and watertight tanks with screw tops 5 in. inside measurement, each top to have two snugs each  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. deep and  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. diameter, and such receptacles shall be securely fastened in the life-rafts: Provided that screw tops which were procured without the prescribed snugs by shipowners prior to the 23rd November, 1903, may be used if they are made so that they can be screwed up and unscrewed without difficulty, and the Surveyor considers they are suitable.
