Altering and redefining the Boundaries of the East Coast Rabbit District.—(Notice No. Ag. 2851.)

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 2nd day of September, 1929.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the Rabbit Nuisance Act, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), it is enacted that the Governor-General, at the request of the Board of any rabbit district, may by Order in Council alter and redefine the boundaries of its district:

And whereas the district known as "The East Coast Rabbit District" (hereinafter referred to as "the said district") has been constituted under and for the purposes of the said Act:

And whereas the Board of the said district has, pursuant to section thirty-one of the said Act, requested that the boundaries of its district be altered and redefined, and it is deemed expedient to give effect to such request:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the said Act, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby alter and redefine the boundaries of the said district so constituted as aforesaid, and doth hereby declare that the boundaries of the said district shall be those set forth in the Schedule hereto, and that the name of the said district and the members of the Board of the said district shall continue as at present existing, subject to the provisions of the said Act, and doth further declare that this Order in Council shall take effect from the date of the publication hereof in the Gazette.
