Regulations under the British Nationality and Status of Aliens (in New Zealand) Act, 1928.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General. ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 2nd day of September, 1929.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Part II of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914 (Imperial), provision is made for the grant to aliens of certificates of naturalization which will confer and impose on the holders thereof all political and other rights, powers, and privileges, and all obligations, duties, and liabilities to which a natural-born British subject is entitled or subject, so that such persons, as from the date of their naturalization, will have to all intents and purposes the status of natural-born British subjects: And whereas it is provided by the said Act that neither Part II thereof nor provided by the said Act that neither Part II thereof nor any certificate of naturalization granted thereunder shall have any force or effect within certain specified Dominions of which the Dominion of New Zealand is one, unless the Legislature thereof has adopted the said Part II: And whereas by the British Nationality and Status of Aliens (in New Zealand) Act, 1928, Part II of the Imperial Act has been adopted by the Legislature of New Zealand: And whereas it is provided by the said Imperial Act that the Legislature of any Dominion that adopts Part II may provide how and by what Department of the Government the powers conferred thereby are to be exercised: And whereas by section fourteen thereby are to be exercised: And whereas by section fourteen of the New Zealand Act power has been conferred on the Governor-General in Council to make regulations providing for the exercise of such powers and generally for carrying into effect the objects of that Act, and it is desirable to make such regulations accordingly:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by section fourteen of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens (in New Zealand) Act, 1928, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for the purposes of the said Act and of Part II of the Imperial Act, in its application to New Zealand, and doth hereby declare that the regulations hereby made shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Gazette.
