Regulations for Trout Fishing in the Feilding and District Acclimatization District.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 9th day of September, 1929.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Fisheries Act, 1908, and its amendments, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for all that part of the Dominion known as the Feilding and District Acclimatization District, and the waters thereof, as the same is defined in the First Schedule hereto; and doth hereby declare that these regulations shall, as from the date of the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, supersede all other regulations for the said district, and such regulations are hereby revoked.

REGULATIONS.

1. LICENSES to fish for trout and other acclimatized fish within the said district may be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Feilding and District Acclimatization Society, or any one authorized by the said Secretary in that behalf, and such license shall entitle the person named therein to fish in the said acclimatization district from the 1st day of October in any one year to the 30th day of April in the year following, subject to the said Acts, and any regulations made thereunder, and in force in the said district, and to these regulations.

2. The fee to be charged for a license as aforesaid to each male person over the age of sixteen years shall be one pound (£1), and every such license shall be in the form set forth in the Second Schedule hereto. Licenses may also be issued to boys attending school or under the age of sixteen, or to women, at a fee of five shillings (5s.) for each license so issued: Provided that it shall be lawful for any Secretary or his deputy, in any case where application is made for a license on or after the 20th day of December in any year, to issue a license to any man for the sum of twelve shillings and sixpence (12s. 6d.); but so that such license shall extend only from the time of granting the same until the termination of the then trout-fishing season. No license shall confer any right of entry upon the land of any person without his consent.

3. The Secretary of the said society or his deputy may issue day licenses to bona fide travellers and strangers not resident within the district aforesaid on payment of a fee of two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) for each day's fishing: Provided that the Secretary or his deputy may refuse to issue a license to any person who (within the previous five years) has been convicted of any breach of the provisions of any Act relating to fishing for trout, or of any regulations made thereunder.

4. Trout shall not be fished for, taken, or killed, otherwise than with one rod and line, but a landing-net or gaff may be used to secure any trout caught with such rod and line, and no lines or baits other than natural or artificial flies, insects, worms, or fish shall be used with such rod and line: Provided that in that portion of the Oroua River between the Aorangi Bridge at Feilding and the Menzie's Ford Bridge on the Colyton Road artificial fly only may be used.

5. No license shall authorize any person other than the person named therein to fish.

6. No person shall take, kill, or have in his possession any trout or perch between the 1st day of May and the 30th day of September in any year, which period is hereby appointed a close season for trout: Provided always that this regulation shall not apply to fish caught by the officers of the Marine Department or of an acclimatization society, or the General Manager of the Department of Tourists and Health Resorts for the purpose of pisciculture or scientific investigation.
