

Appointing Members of the Whakatane Harbour Board.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

WHEREAS it is provided by the twenty-eighth section of the Harbours Act, 1923, that if any constituent district or combined district fails at any election to elect the required number of representatives, the Governor-General may, by Warrant under his hand, appoint such qualified persons as he thinks fit to be the representatives of that district in lieu of those who ought to have been elected; and the persons so appointed shall hold office in all respects as if they had been duly elected in conformity with the said Act:

And whereas it is provided by section five of the Whakatane Harbour Amendment Act, 1928, that three members of the Whakatane Harbour Board shall be elected by the electors of the Rangitaiki Subdivision of the Harbour District, and one member shall be elected by the electors of the Taneatua Subdivision of the Harbour District:

And whereas at the election held on the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, the electors of the said Rangitaiki Subdivision elected one member only, and the electors of the said Taneatua Subdivision failed to elect a member to the Board:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the hereinbefore recited power and authority, doth hereby appoint to be a member of the Whakatane Harbour Board as a representative of the electors of the Rangitaiki Subdivision of the Harbour District, and to be a member of the Board as a representative of the Taneatua Subdivision of the Harbour District, to fill the vacancies caused by the before-mentioned failures to elect.

Alfred Leonard Luke

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 2nd day of October, 1929.

JOHN G. COBBE, Minister of Marine.
