ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 14th day of October, 1929.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Fisheries Act, 1908, and its amendments, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations and doth declare as follows:—

1. The following regulations shall have force and effect only in the waters and places described in the First Schedule to the following regulations.
2. The following regulations shall come into force on and from the fourteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.
3. The Rotorua Trout-fishing Regulations, 1928, made by Order in Council dated the seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and published in the Gazette on the eighteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, at page 2814, are hereby revoked so far as they have not already been heretofore revoked.
4. In so far as any other regulations heretofore made and now in force are inconsistent with or repugnant to the following regulations the same shall be deemed to be subject to the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

INTERPRETATION.

1. IN these regulations, if not inconsistent with the context,—

“General Manager or his appointee” means the General Manager for the time being of the Department of Tourist and Health Resorts or any one authorized in writing by such General Manager to act on his behalf for all the purposes of these regulations or any particular purpose, as the case may be:

“License” means a license to fish for trout issued under these regulations:

“Open season” means the period from the 1st day of November in any year to the 31st day of May in the next following year (both days inclusive):

“Close season” means the portion of any year which is not included in the open season as hereby defined:

“The district” means the waters and places described in the First Schedule hereto.

2. These regulations may be cited as “the Rotorua Trout-fishing Regulations, 1929.”

ISSUE OF LICENSES.

3. The following licenses to fish for trout in the district may be issued:—

- (a) A whole-season license.
- (b) A monthly license.
- (c) A weekly license.
- (d) A day license.
