

or subsequently to the conviction of any person for any offence alleged in such information.

(2) The master of any vessel arrested under a warrant issued as aforesaid or upon whom any such warrant is served who permits such vessel thereafter to proceed to sea before it is released by competent authority commits an offence, and is liable to a fine not exceeding £100.

(3) Where a vessel so proceeding to sea takes to sea (when on board thereof in the execution of his duty) any officer or any person authorized to arrest and detain the said vessel, the owner and master of the ship shall each be liable to pay all expenses of and incidental to the officer or person being so taken to sea and also to a fine not exceeding £100, and such expenses may be recovered in like manner as the fine.

(4) For the purposes of these regulations the arrest of any vessel shall be deemed to be complete so soon as any person authorized to execute the warrant of arrest has boarded the vessel and notified to the master or any other officer of the vessel that it is arrested, or so soon as any such person has been resisted or obstructed in his endeavour to board the vessel for that purpose.

5. EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE.

(1) A vessel shall be deemed for the purpose of these regulations to be engaged in whaling if it is during the whaling season then current substantially so engaged or used, and it shall not be necessary to prove that the pursuit or capture of whales or the conversion into commercial products of the carcass of a whale or any part thereof, as the case may be, was actually being undertaken at the time specified in the information.

(2) An information for a breach of these regulations shall be sufficient if set out in or to the effect of Form No. 1 in the said Schedule.

(3) A summons issued pursuant to any such information shall be sufficient if set out in or to the effect of Form No. 2 in the said Schedule.

(4) A warrant to arrest and detain any ship pursuant to these regulations shall be sufficient if set out in or to the effect of Form No. 3 in the said Schedule.
