Regulations as to Drainage and Plumbing under the Health Act, 1920, applied to certain Districts.—(H. 3/13.)

Department of Health,
Wellington, 31st October, 1929.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the 3rd day of September, 1923, and gazetted on the 6th day of the same month, regulations (to be cited as "The Drainage and Plumbing Regulations") were made under the Health Act, 1920, prescribing the conditions to be observed in the construction of approved drains, septic tanks, sanitary conveniences, and sanitary appliances:

And whereas by the said regulations it was provided that the same were suspended as provided in the said Act:

And whereas by section 133 of the said Act it is enacted that the operation of any such regulation may, if so provided therein, be wholly suspended until they are applied by the Minister by notice in the Gazette to any part of New Zealand:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur John Stallworthy, Minister of Health, in exercise of the power and authority given by the said regulations and by section 133 of the said Act, do hereby apply the said regulations to the Mosston Riding of the Waitotara County, and the Mount Maunganui Area of Tauranga County, being all that area commencing at the north-eastern boundary of the Whareroa Block, Block VII, Tauranga Survey District; thence following the ocean boundary towards the north-west around Mount Maunganui; thence along the Tauranga Harbour shore in a south-easterly direction to the junction of the Onuki No. 1, Omanu, and the said Whareroa Blocks; thence along the southern boundary of the last-mentioned block back to the commencing-point; and do hereby declare that this notice shall take effect on the 1st day of December, 1929.

A. J. STALLWORTHY, Minister of Health.

The Land and Income Tax (Annual) Act, 1929.

ORDINARY LAND-TAX PAYABLE.

BY Order in Council, made and issued by His Excellency the Governor-General in Council on the 4th day of November, 1929, under the authority of the above Act, it was determined that the duty by way of ordinary land-tax leviable under the said Act should be paid in one sum on Thursday, the 21st day of November, 1929, at the office of the Commissioner of Taxes, Government Buildings, Wellington; and, in accordance with such Order in Council, I hereby give notice that the said duty will be payable accordingly.

Additional tax will accrue if the tax is not paid on or before 12th December, 1929. The liability to pay is not suspended by any objection. The tax should be paid on or before the prescribed date, otherwise the additional percentage accrues; any overpayment will be adjusted by refund. The demands will be posted from the office of the Commissioner of Taxes on or about 8th November, 1929. Demands must be presented with all payments, and taxpayers who expect a demand and do not receive one should notify me of the fact.

E. J. R. CUMMING,
Commissioner of Taxes.
