Regulating the Use of Nets for taking Fish in certain Waters.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 13th day of January, 1930.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is provided by section five of the Fisheries Act, 1908 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), that the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, make regulations imposing conditions and restrictions on the taking of fish, and prohibiting any specified mode of taking fish, or the use of any specified engines, tackle, or apparatus for taking the same:

And whereas it is considered expedient to make the regulations hereinafter set forth with respect to the use of nets, tackle, and apparatus for taking fish within the waters herein-after described:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

(1) No person shall haul or use a Danish-seine net for the purpose of taking fish within the following limits in the Bay of Islands: Commencing at Poraenui Point, a straight line from there to Toketoke Point; thence to Tapeka Point; thence to the N.W. Point of Motu Arohia (Robertson's Island); thence along the high-water mark to the S.E. point of Motu Arohia; thence in a straight line to the southernmost point of Motu Rua (Mita's Island), continuing along the high-water line to the most easterly point of the same island; thence in a straight line to the S.E. point (most southerly point) of Motukiekie; thence in a straight line to the most westerly point of Oruapukapuka; thence along high-water mark to the most easterly point of Oruapukapuka; and thence in a straight line to the most westerly point of Richard's Peninsula; thence generally by high-water mark of the mainland to the point of commencement.

(2) For the purpose of these regulations a Danish seine is a net having a warp attached to each wing, and which is operated by being drawn over the sea-bottom, the power for such operation and for the hauling of the net being provided by a winch driven by an internal combustion or steam-engine.

(3) Any person committing a breach of any of the above regulations is liable to a fine of £50.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations for Trout and Perch Fishing in the Westland Acclimatization District.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 13th day of January, 1930.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Fisheries Act, 1908, and its amendments, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for all that part of the Dominion known as the Westland Acclimatization District and the waters thereof, as the same is defined in the First Schedule hereof; and doth hereby declare that these regulations shall, as from the date of the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, supersede all other regulations for the said district, and such regulations are hereby revoked.

REGULATIONS.

1. LICENSES to fish for trout, perch, or other acclimatized fish in all waters within the said district may be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Westland Acclimatization Society, or any one authorized by the said Secretary in that behalf, and such license shall entitle the person named therein to fish in the said acclimatization district from the first day of October in any one year to the thirtieth day of April in the year following, subject to the said Acts, and any regulations made thereunder, and to these regulations: Provided that the Secretary may refuse to issue a license to any person who, within the previous two years, has been convicted of any breach of the provisions of any Act relating to fishing for trout, perch, or other acclimatized fish, or of any regulations made thereunder.

2. The fee to be charged for a license as aforesaid to each male person over the age of sixteen years shall be £1, and every such license shall be in the form set forth in the Second Schedule hereto. Licenses may also be issued to boys attending school or under the age of sixteen, or to women, at a reduced fee of 5s. for each license so issued: Provided that it shall be lawful for any Secretary or his deputy, in any case where application is made for a license on or after the twentieth day of December in any year, to issue a license to any man for the sum of 12s. 6d., but so that such license shall extend only from the time of granting the same until the termination of the then trout-fishing season. No license shall confer any right of entry upon the land of any person without his consent.

3. The Secretary of the said society may issue day-licenses to bona fide travellers and strangers not resident within the district aforesaid on payment of a fee of 5s. for each day's fishing.

4. No person shall take, kill, or fish for trout, perch, or other acclimatized fish otherwise than with one rod and line, but a landing-net or gaff may be used to secure any trout, perch, or other acclimatized fish caught with such rod and line, and no lures or baits other than natural or artificial flies, insects worms, or fish, or spoon bait shall be used with such rod and line; nor shall any of the said lines or baits be used except upon a running line attached to a rod and reel; nor shall any set rod or line be used for taking trout, perch, or other acclimatized fish in any of the waters or streams aforesaid.

5. No person shall fish with more than two flies, or one fly and one minnow, devon, or spoon bait, or one fly and one natural bait, or two natural baits affixed to any trace. No fly shall have more than one hook, and no person shall use more than one lead or sinker, and such lead or sinker shall be tied above all flies, minnow, or natural bait used: Provided that the restrictions imposed by this regulation shall not apply to single-hooked flies of size 10 (old numbers) or smaller.

6. No person shall use any trace made of gimp or of either plain or twisted wire having a greater gauge than 21 standard
