

HOLDER OF TEMPORARY PERMIT OR PASSENGER BY ANY VESSEL WHO COMMITS AN OFFENCE TO BE TREATED AS A PROHIBITED IMMIGRANT.

11. Every person to whom a temporary permit has been granted who commits an offence under paragraphs (b) or (c) of subclause (1) of clause 9 hereof, and every person who lands in Samoa under the provisions of subclause (d) of clause 12 hereof, but who fails to leave Samoa as provided in the said subclause (d) of clause 12 hereof, shall be deemed to be a prohibited immigrant, and the provisions of clauses 4, 5, and 8 hereof shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to such person and to the ship in which he travelled to Samoa, and the owner, charterer, and master thereof.

EXEMPTION FROM PROVISIONS OF ORDER.

12. The foregoing provisions of this Order shall not apply to—
- (a) His Majesty's land and sea forces.
 - (b) The officers and crew of any ship of war of any Government.
 - (c) Any person, being one of the officers or crew of any mercantile vessel, provided—
 - (i) That he is not discharged in Samoa :
 - (ii) That he is on board the vessel when she is cleared outwards and leaves Samoa with her :
 - (iii) That the Collector of Customs may, by notice under his hand delivered to the master of any such vessel, prohibit the landing in Samoa of its crew unless and until the master shall have executed a bond with two sureties, to be approved by the Collector, in such sum as the Collector shall determine, conditioned for the due departure of the said crew when the vessel resumes its voyage from Samoa.
 - (d) Any person arriving in Samoa as a passenger in the course of his journey by any vessel to any place beyond Samoa if he leaves Samoa with that vessel on her first departure from the Territory.
 - (e) Any person duly accredited to the Administration of Samoa by or under the authority of the Imperial or any other Government.

13. (1) Notwithstanding the last preceding clause of this Order, if an officer of Customs or of Police has reason to believe or suspect that any person arriving in Samoa from beyond the seas is a person whose landing in Samoa is prohibited by this Order, or whose intention to land in Samoa should be communicated to the Administrator for the purposes of this Order, such officer may, by order signed by him, temporarily prohibit that person from landing in Samoa.

(2) Every such order shall, unless sooner revoked, expire in forty-eight hours after the day on which it was signed.

(3) Every person who, with knowledge that such an order has been made against him, lands in Samoa while the order remains in force, shall be liable to a fine of £100 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

14. (1) For the purpose of ensuring compliance with the foregoing provisions of this Order an officer of Customs and of Police shall board every vessel arriving from places beyond Samoa forthwith after its arrival at any port or harbour in Samoa.

(2) The master of the vessel shall forthwith deliver to the officer of Customs the passenger-list and crew-list, or a true copy thereof, and shall truly answer any questions relating to the passengers and crew which may be put to him by the officer of Customs or the officer of Police for the purposes of this Order.
