

(f) The establishment and maintenance of college hostels or residential houses for the accommodation of students attending the college: Provided that any such hostel or residential house is wholly under the control of the College Corporation:

(g) The extension or improvement of farm live-stock and/or poultry.

5. If such purpose be one in respect of which a subsidy at the rate of £1 for every £1 of voluntary contributions is claimed to be payable pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of the said section 5, no such subsidy shall be payable until the Minister is satisfied that proper provision by means of a sufficient declaration of trust or other instrument has been made to ensure that such voluntary contributions shall be available solely for and at all times used solely as a capital endowment, the income from which is available solely for one or more of the purposes set out in the last preceding clause of these regulations, and until such declaration of trust or other instrument has been produced to the Minister and an attested copy thereof delivered to him to be retained by the Director-General of Agriculture.

6. All claims for the payment of any subsidy must be made to the Minister in the form set forth in the Schedule hereto and must be executed under the seal of the College Corporation or signed by the Registrar or other responsible officer thereof.

7. Accounts shall be kept by the college of all voluntary contributions which are available for and used solely as capital endowments, and on which there is paid the subsidy provided for by paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of the said section 5, showing—

- (a) (i) The amounts of capital standing to the credit of these accounts on the first day of January in each year.
- (ii) The sources from which such capital was derived and the amount derived from each source.
- (iii) The purposes for which the contributions were given.
- (iv) The amount of capital received during the year.
- (b) The amounts invested in securities and the names of such securities.
- (c) The income derived from such investments.
- (d) The amounts expended and the purposes of such expenditure.
- (e) The balance in the Income and Expenditure Account.

8. Similar accounts shall be kept of the subsidies which are paid by the Government from time to time on voluntary contributions, and which are to be used as a capital endowment pursuant to subsection (5) of the said section 5.

9. Accounts shall be kept of the voluntary contributions which are not used as capital endowments showing the amounts received and expended and the balance as on the first day of January in each year.

10. All the foregoing accounts shall be duly audited by the Audit Office, and shall be available at all times both before and after audit for inspection by any person appointed by the Minister for that purpose.

SCHEDULE.
