Licensing the Leyland O'Brien Timber Company, Limited, to use and occupy a Part of the Foreshore and Land below Low-water Mark of Mangatete Stream, Awani, as a Site for a Landing-stage.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 13th day of October, 1930.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette, No. 58, of the eleventh day of the same month, the Leyland O'Brien Timber Company, Limited, of Auckland (who, with its successors and assigns is hereinafter referred to as "the company"), was licensed, for a term of fourteen years, computed from the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, to use and occupy a part of the foreshore and land below low-water mark of the Mangatete Stream at Awani, as shown on plan marked M.D. 4591, and deposited in the office of the Marine Department at Wellington, in order to maintain a landing-stage thereon:

And whereas the company has applied for a fresh license under the Harbours Act, 1923 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), for a further term of fourteen years, and it is advisable to grant the same:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby approve of the purpose or object for which the said license is required by the company as aforesaid; and, in further pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, and with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, doth hereby license and permit the company to use and occupy that part of the foreshore and land below low-water mark adjacent thereto, as shown on plan M.D. 4591, so deposited as aforesaid, necessary for the maintenance of the said landing-stage, such license to be held and enjoyed by the company upon and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

1. In these conditions the terms—

"Foreshore" means such part of the bed, shore, or banks of a tidal water as are covered and uncovered by the flow and ebb of the tide at ordinary spring tides:

"Low-water mark" means low-water mark at ordinary spring tides:

"Minister" means the Minister of Marine as defined by the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, and includes any officer, person, or authority acting by or under the direction of such Minister.

2. The concessions and privileges conferred by this Order in Council shall extend and apply only to that part of the foreshore and land below low-water mark occupied by the said landing-stage, as shown on plan marked M.D. 4591.

3. In consideration of the concessions and privileges granted by this Order in Council the company shall pay to the Minister the sum of £1, and thereafter an annual sum of £1 in advance, payable on the 1st day of April in each year.

4. All persons shall at all reasonable times and upon payment of the prescribed dues, have free and full liberty to use the said landing-stage, and all rights of ingress and egress thereon and therefrom.

5. His Majesty or the Governor-General, and all officers in the Government service acting in the execution of their duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress into, through, and out of the said landing-stage without payment.

6. The company shall maintain the above-mentioned landing-stage in good order and repair, and shall at all times exhibit therefrom and maintain at the company's own cost suitable and necessary lights for the guidance of vessels; provided that no light shall be exhibited until after it has been approved by the Minister.

7. Any person authorized by the Minister may at all reasonable times enter upon the said landing-stage and view the state of repair thereof: and upon such Minister leaving at or posting to the last known address of the company in New Zealand a notice in writing of any defect or want of repair in such landing-stage, requiring the company within a reasonable time, to be therein prescribed, to repair the same, the company shall with all convenient speed cause such defect to be removed or such repairs to be made.

8. Nothing herein contained shall authorize the company to do or cause to be done anything repugnant to or inconsistent with any law relating to the Customs, or with any provisions of the Harbours Act, 1923, or its amendments, or any regulations made thereunder, and that are now or may hereafter be in force.

9. The rights, powers, and privileges conferred by or under this Order in Council shall continue to be in force for fourteen years from the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, unless in the meantime such rights, powers, and privileges shall be altered, modified, or revoked by competent authority; and the company shall not assign, charge, or part with any such right, power, or privilege without the written consent of the Minister first obtained.

10. The ballast of all vessels loading at the said landing-stage shall be taken away by the company and deposited above high-water mark, or at such place as may be approved of by the Minister, or by any person appointed by the Minister for that purpose.

11. The said rights, powers, and privileges may be at any time resumed by the Governor-General, and the company
