

Appointing a Member of the Napier Harbour Board.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

WHEREAS it is provided by section thirty-seven of the Harbours Act, 1923, that in the case of the death of a member of a Harbour Board the vacancy created by his death shall be deemed to be an extraordinary vacancy:

And whereas it is provided by subsection two of section thirty-eight of the said Act that, in the event of an extraordinary vacancy in the office of an elective member of the Board other than a representative of a constituent district, the Governor-General may, by Warrant under his hand, appoint some qualified person in his place:

And whereas Ernest Albert Goodger, an elective member of the Napier Harbour Board, being a representative of the combined district of the Borough of Waipukurau and the County of Waipukurau, is deceased, and an extraordinary vacancy in the membership of the Board has thereby been created, and it is desirable to appoint some qualified person in his place:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the hereinbefore-recited power and authority, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, doth hereby appoint to be a member of the Napier Harbour Board as a representative of the combined district aforesaid, in the place of Ernest Albert Goodger, deceased.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 7th day of November, 1930.
