

And whereas the said Tamaki Road District has become merged in the City of Auckland, and the said One Tree Hill Road District has been constituted a borough, and it is expedient to make provision for the representation on the Auckland Harbour Board of the said combined district as altered:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by sections twenty-two and thirty-one of the Harbours Act, 1923, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that one member of the Auckland Harbour Board shall be elected by the electors of the Boroughs of Newmarket, Onehunga, and One Tree Hill, the Ellerslie Town District, and the Mount Wellington and Panmure Road Districts, in lieu of one member by the electors of the Boroughs of Newmarket and Onehunga, the Ellerslie Town District, and the Mount Wellington, One Tree Hill, Panmure, and Tamaki Road Districts; and doth hereby select and appoint the Onehunga Borough Council to be the principal authority for the purpose of such elections by the electors of the combined district as hereby altered.

A. W. MULLIGAN,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Certain Classes of Persons to be exempt from Unemployment Levy.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 12th day of December, 1930.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN exercise of the powers conferred on him by the Unemployment Act, 1930, on grounds of public interest, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby, to the extent hereinafter appearing, and until further provision in that behalf shall be made by subsequent Order in Council, declare the following class of persons to be wholly exempt from payment of the unemployment levy, namely:—

(1) Every person who, having served in the War of 1914-19 as a member of any of His Majesty's Naval, Military, or Air Forces raised in any part of the British Dominions, is for the time being in receipt of a pension granted by the Government of any British jurisdiction in respect of his total disablement through such service:

And doth hereby, to the extent hereinafter appearing, and until further provision in that behalf shall be made by subsequent Order in Council, exempt from the payment of any quarterly instalment of levy under the said Act the following persons and classes of persons:—

(2) Every person who on the due date of such quarterly instalment is sixty-five years of age or over, and whose income from all sources during the three months immediately preceding such due date has not exceeded an average sum of £2 a week; and who has not obtained the consent of the Unemployment Board to his exclusion from the exemption hereby created:

Provided that any person seeking the consent of the Board to such exclusion shall make application in writing to the Board in that behalf setting out the grounds thereof:

Provided also that the consent of the Board may at any time be withdrawn after reasonable notice to the person affected:

Provided also that the person affected may at any time by notice in writing to the Board elect, notwithstanding any such consent, to claim the benefit of the exemption hereby created.

(3) Every person who, on the due date of such quarterly instalment, and for at least the whole of the month on the first day of which such instalment is due is, through any physical or mental disability, unable regularly to follow any occupation or calling for a livelihood, and whose income from all sources during the three months immediately preceding such due date has not exceeded an average sum of £2 per week.

(4) Every person who is for the time being a member of a religious body whose rules forbid the possession by its members of any personal property except clothing and similar personal effects.

(5) Every person who on the due date of such quarterly instalment and during the whole of the month immediately preceding such due date has been registered as unemployed at an office of the Department of Labour, and has not received any income.

(6) Every person in respect of whom the Unemployment Board is satisfied by resolution passed within six weeks prior to the due date of such quarterly instalment that, by reason of sickness or poverty, it would produce undue hardship upon such person or his dependants to require such person to pay the said instalment.
