

Cook Islands Fruit Regulations, 1928, amended.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 13th day of April, 1931.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance of the authority to make regulations for the peace, order, and good government of the Cook Islands conferred on him by the Cook Islands Act, 1915, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, doth hereby amend the Cook Islands Fruit Regulations, 1928, in the manner hereinafter set forth.

REGULATIONS.

1. (a) These regulations may be cited as "The Cook Islands Fruit Regulations, 1931, Amendment No. 3."

(b) These regulations shall come into force on the date of publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

(c) In these regulations the term "the principal regulations" means the Cook Islands Fruit Regulations, 1928.

2. Regulation 5 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by revoking sections (1) and (3) thereof and substituting therefor the following sections:—

"(1) No oranges shall be passed as fit for export unless they are of and between two and one-half inches to three and one-eighth inches in diameter, and unless they are pocket-packed."

"(3) No tomatoes shall be passed as fit for export which are under the grade of two inches in diameter."

3. Regulation 10 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by omitting the words "on his own plantation" where they occur in clause (1) of subsection (a) of section (7) of the said regulation.
