Further Proroguing the General Assembly.

[L.S.] BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

To the LEGISLATIVE COUNCILLORS of the Dominion of New Zealand, and the Members elected to serve in the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES of the said Dominion, summoned and called to a Meeting of the General Assembly of the said Dominion, at the City of Wellington, on the twenty-second day of the month of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, to have been commenced and held, and to every of you: GREETING.

WHEREAS on the fifth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, the General Assembly of New Zealand was prorogued to the twenty-second day of the month of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, at which time you were held constrained to appear: Now KNOW YE that for divers causes and considerations I have thought fit to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking and by these presents enjoining you and each of you that on Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of March next, you meet in Parliament, at the City of Wellington, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of the said Dominion of New Zealand, and therein to do as may seem necessary.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, and issued under the Seal of that Dominion, this 13th day of January, 1931.

E. A. RANSOM,
 For Minister of Internal Affairs.
