

General Provisions as to Declarations.

6. For the purpose of the proper assessment of the emergency unemployment charge, in accordance with these regulations, every person required to make a declaration in accordance with the foregoing provisions of these regulations or any other person shall, upon a written request from an authorized officer or from the Commissioner of Taxes, furnish such further declaration or declarations or information as may be required.

7. Every declaration addressed to the Secretary of the Post and Telegraph Department shall be delivered to an authorized officer at a money-order office, and every declaration addressed to the Commissioner of Taxes shall be delivered to him at his office in Wellington, or shall be forwarded to such office by letter, properly stamped.

PAYMENT OF CHARGE.

8. The emergency unemployment charge on income other than salaries and wages shall be payable in accordance with the following provisions of this clause:—

- (a) Every declaration made under these regulations as to the income of the declarant for the year ended 31st March, 1931, shall, when delivered or forwarded to an authorized officer or to the Commissioner of Taxes, as hereinafter provided, be accompanied by the amount of the charge payable in respect of one-third of the amount of such income, exclusive of salary or wages, or, in the discretion of the declarant, may be accompanied by the amount of the charge payable in respect of two-thirds of such income, exclusive of salary or wages:
- (b) If the declarant, in accordance with the last preceding paragraph, pays the charge only on one-third of such income as aforesaid, an equal amount shall, without further notice or demand, be due and payable on 1st February, 1932 (as provided in section 16 of the Amendment Act):
- (c) Every declaration made under these regulations as to the income of the declarant for the year ending 31st March, 1932, shall, when delivered or forwarded to an authorized officer or to the Commissioner of Taxes, as hereinafter provided, be accompanied by the amount of the charge payable in respect of one-third of the amount of such income, exclusive of salary or wages.

9. (1) Upon the receipt by an authorized officer or by the Commissioner of Taxes of any payment of the emergency unemployment charge under these regulations, he shall give a receipt for such payment in a form to be provided for the purpose.

(2) In any case where, in respect of income for the year ended 31st March, 1931, the total amount of the charge is not paid in one sum, the form of receipt shall disclose—

- (a) The amount of the declared income for the year:
- (b) The amount of the charge paid:
- (c) The due date and the amount of the next instalment,—and unless such receipt is produced on the payment of such next instalment, the person liable therefor shall be required to make a new declaration as to his income for the year ended as aforesaid.

10. If any emergency unemployment charge under these regulations is paid in excess or is paid in error, an adjustment may be made at the time of any subsequent payment, or a refund of any amount that has been so paid in excess or in error may, with the consent of the Minister of Finance, be paid out of the Unemployment Fund.

GENERAL.

11. (1) For the purpose of ensuring compliance with the provisions of the Amendment Act and these regulations, with respect to the payment of the emergency unemployment charge on income other than salaries and wages, any person acting with the authority in writing of the Controller and Auditor-General or the Commissioner of Unemployment, or the Commissioner of Taxes, shall at all times have full and free access to all lands, buildings, places, books, and documents for the purpose of inspecting the same in the execution of his office.

(2) Every person who obstructs or hinders any person in the exercise of the powers conferred by this clause commits an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of £20.

12. Every person shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of £50 who—

- (a) Refuses or fails to furnish any declaration or information as and when required by or pursuant to these regulations; or
- (b) Wilfully or negligently makes any false declaration in relation to the subject-matter of these regulations; or
- (c) Aids, abets, or incites any other person to commit an offence against these regulations.
