“Permit” means a permit granted by an Inspector under the provisions of section 65 of the said Act :

“Boxing contest” has the same meaning as in section 64 of the said Act—namely, “Any boxing match, boxing competition, or boxing exhibition for admission to which a charge is made, or at which a collection is taken up, or at which those present are invited or permitted to throw money into the ring or otherwise deposit it in the building or elsewhere, or on the result of which any stake, bet, payment, or prize depends” :

6. Every permit shall, unless otherwise so expressed, operate as a permit to hold a boxing contest at the time and place named in the application and between or amongst the competitors named therein, and not further or otherwise : Provided that if on account of unforeseen circumstances it is desired by way of alteration to hold the contest at some other time, or place, or between or amongst competitors one or more of whom is not named in the application or permit, the Inspector, or any police officer authorized by him in that behalf, may, on application made at any time prior to the contest, consent to and make such alteration, and the permit shall thereupon operate as a permit to hold a boxing contest in terms of the permit as so altered.

(g) That no amateur contest shall exceed six rounds and no professional contest shall exceed fifteen rounds.

(h) That no round shall exceed three minutes in duration and the interval between successive rounds shall be one minute.

10. If at any time in the opinion of the senior member of the Police Force present on duty at any boxing contest there is undue roughness or persistent wilful breach by one or more contestants of any of the rules under which the contest is conducted, such senior member of Police may forthwith order the bout or the contest to be stopped.
