Vesting the Management of the Jetty and Shed at Karitane, Waikouaiti River, in Charles John Johnston, Leonard Wilson, and James Heath, as Trustees for the Inhabitants of the District.

BLREDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 22nd day of February, 1932.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section one hundred and eighty-six of the Harbours Act, 1923 (hereinafter called the said Act), it is enacted that the Governor-General in Council may vest the management of any wharf, the property of His Majesty the King, in any person upon such terms and conditions as the Governor-General in Council thinks fit:

And whereas it is thought advisable to vest in Charles John Johnston, Fisherman, Leonard Wilson, Fisherman, James Heath, Fisherman, all of Karitane, as Trustees for the inhabitants of the district (hereinafter referred to as “the Trustees”), the management of the jetty and shed which are erected on the foreshore at Karitane, Waikouaiti River, and which are shown on plan marked M.D. 2593, and deposited in the office of the Marine Department at Wellington, on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, doth hereby vest the management of the said jetty and shed in the Trustees, subject to the conditions set forth in the Schedule hereto.
