Amending General Regulations under Part II of the Fisheries Act, 1908.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 11th day of April, 1932.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is provided by sections eighty-three and ninety-four of the Fisheries Act, 1908 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), that the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, make regulations (to have force and effect throughout New Zealand, or only in such waters or places as are specified in the regulations) for, among other things, providing for the more effectual protection of fish, and the management of any waters in which fishing may be carried on, and imposing or presenting any conditions and restrictions in respect of fishing for any acclimatized fish:

And whereas by Order in Council of the twenty-third day of August, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and published in the Gazette of the twenty-ninth day of the same month, at page 2685, general regulations were made under the said Act to have force and effect throughout New Zealand:

And whereas it is considered expedient to amend the said regulations by revoking the Schedule to the hereinbefore-recited Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby amend the said regulations of the twenty-third August, one thousand nine hundred and seven, by revoking the Schedule to the said regulations and substituting in lieu thereof the following Schedule; and doth hereby declare that the said Schedule shall have force and effect throughout New Zealand except in the areas described in the First Schedules to the Rotorua Trout-fishing Regulations and the Taupo Trout-fishing Regulations.

REGULATIONS.
