

Appointment in the Public Service.

Office of the Public Service Commissioner,
Wellington, 8th January, 1932.

THE Public Service Commissioner has made the following appointment in the Public Service:—

James Joseph McGahey, to be Registrar of Electors for the Lyttelton District for the purposes of the Electoral Act, 1927, as from the 4th day of January, 1932.

T. MARK, Secretary.

Applying the Provisions of Section 118 of the Public Works Act, 1928, to the Devil's Elbow Deviation.

WHEREAS it is provided by section 7 of the Main Highways Amendment Act, 1925, that the Minister of Public Works may, on the recommendation of the Main Highways Board (hereinafter referred to as "the Board"), by notice in the Gazette, declare that the provisions of section 118 of the Public Works Act, 1928, in so far as it provides for the apportionment of the cost of construction of any road, shall apply with respect to the apportionment of the cost of construction of any main highway in so far as such cost is not provided for out of the Main Highways Account:

And whereas on the 16th day of December, 1931, the Board resolved as follows: "That, in terms of the Main Highways Amendment Act, 1925, the Right Honourable Minister of Public Works be recommended to apply the provisions of section 118 of the Public Works Act, 1928, to the Devil's Elbow Deviation on the Masterton-Tinui Main Highway":

Now, therefore, I, Joseph Gordon Coates, Minister of Public Works, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the said section 7, and of every other power in anywise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby declare that the provisions of section 118 of the Public Works Act, 1928, in so far as they provide for the apportionment of cost of construction, shall apply with respect to the apportionment of the cost of construction of the Devil's Elbow Deviation on the Masterton-Tinui Main Highway.

J. G. COATES, Minister of Public Works.
Wellington, New Zealand, 23rd December, 1931.

Applying the Provisions of Section 135 of the Public Works Act, 1928, to Kearon's Bridge.

WHEREAS it is provided by section 7 of the Main Highways Amendment Act, 1925, that the Minister of Public Works may, on the recommendation of the Main Highways Board (hereinafter referred to as "the Board"), by notice in the Gazette, declare that the provisions of section 135 of the Public Works Act, 1928, in so far as it provides for the apportionment of the cost of construction of any bridge forming part of a main highway, shall apply with respect to the apportionment of the cost of construction of any bridge forming part of a main highway in so far as such cost is not provided for out of the Main Highways Fund:

And whereas on the 16th day of December, 1931, the Board resolved as follows: "That, in terms of the Main Highways Amendment Act, 1925, the Right Honourable Minister of Public Works be recommended to apply the provisions of section 135 of the Public Works Act, 1928, to the Kearon's Bridge on the Waikumete—West Coast Main Highway":

Now, therefore, I, Joseph Gordon Coates, Minister of Public Works, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the said section 7, and of every other power in anywise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby declare that the provisions of section 135 of the Public Works Act, 1928, in so far as they provide for the apportionment of cost of construction, shall apply with respect to the apportionment of the cost of construction of Kearon's Bridge on the Waikumete—West Coast Main Highway.

J. G. COATES, Minister of Public Works.
Wellington, New Zealand, 23rd December, 1931.
