Altering Districts under the Maori Councils Act, 1900.

[L.S.] BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section three of the Maori Councils Act, 1900, it is provided that the Governor may proclaim any District a Maori District for the purpose of the said Act, and may at any time alter or revoke such proclamation: And whereas by proclamation made under his hand on the twenty-sixth day of December, one thousand nine hundred, the Governor did proclaim certain districts including, inter alia, the Mangonui District and the Hokianga District to be Maori Districts for the purpose of the said Act: And whereas it is desirable to alter the boundaries between the Mangonui and Hokianga Maori Districts:

Now, therefore, I, Charles, Baron Bledisloe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the hereinbefore-recited section of the Maori Councils Act, 1900, and every other power thereunto me enabling, do hereby revoke the said proclamation of the twenty-sixth day of December, one thousand nine hundred, in so far as it affects the Mangonui and Hokianga Maori Districts; and in lieu thereof I hereby proclaim the districts the names and boundaries whereof are set out in the Schedule hereto to be Maori Districts for the purpose of the Maori Councils Act, 1900.
