Regulations under the Rabbit Nuisance Act, 1928, relating to the Destruction of Rabbits in the East Waikato Rabbit District.—(Notice No. Ag. 3050.)

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 17th day of June, 1932.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. G. W. FORBES, PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the Rabbit Nuisance Act, 1928, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations relating to the destruction of rabbits in the district under the jurisdiction of the East Waikato Rabbit Board, and doth hereby declare that the regulations hereby made shall come into force on the date of the publication of this Order in Council in the Gazette.

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations, unless inconsistent with the context,—

“Board” means the East Waikato Rabbit Board established under the said Act;

“Inspector” means the person for the time being authorized to act as Rabbit Inspector to the East Waikato Rabbit Board;

“Owner” shall have the meaning ascribed to the word “owner” in section 2 of the said Act.

2. Every owner on whom a notice to destroy rabbits is or has been served pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of the said Act shall, if such notice is effective during any part of the period from the 1st day of May, 1932, to the 30th day of June, 1932, at least once during such period carry out or cause to be carried out to the satisfaction of the Inspector an effective poisoning over all infested portions of the land to which such notice refers, using carrot as bait and strychnine as poison; and shall, immediately after such poisoning, take or cause to be taken all reasonable steps to fill in all burrows on such land, and forthwith after the filling-in of such burrows shall, to the satisfaction of the Inspector, fumigate or cause to be fumigated all fresh burrows and reopened burrows, using carbon bisulphide or cyanogas.

3. Not later than seven days after the publication of these regulations in the Gazette all trapping, shooting, hunting, and dogging of rabbits shall cease on all land in respect of which notice to destroy rabbits has been served; and thereafter for a period of three months no owner of any such land nor any other person shall trap, shoot, hunt, or dog, or permit or suffer to be trapped, shot, hunted, or dogged, any rabbits on such land except with the written permission of the Board and subject to the conditions specified therein.

4. Commencing not later than seven days after the service of any notice to destroy rabbits served after the gazetting of these regulations, and for the period of three months after such service, the same restrictions shall apply with respect to the destruction of rabbits on the land referred to in such notice as are specified in regulation numbered 3 of these regulations.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of regulations numbered 2, 3, and 4 hereinbefore appearing, the Inspector may, in respect of any land to which any of the said provisions are not conveniently applicable, authorize in writing signed by him the employment of any other method or methods of rabbit-destruction, and compliance with the method or methods specified in any such authority shall be deemed a compliance with these regulations.

6. Every person committing a breach of these regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10.
