Authorizing the Judges of the First Division of the Court of Appeal to sit with the Judges of the Second Division.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 10th day of October, 1932.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. G. W. FORBES PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section nine of the Judicature Amendment Act, 1913, it is enacted that each Division of the Court of Appeal shall sit and exercise its jurisdiction separately, save that in respect of any sitting of either Division the Governor in Council may, on the certificate of two Judges (of whom the Chief Justice shall be one) that any appeal or other proceeding is of special difficulty or importance, authorize all the Judges of the other Division to sit together with those of the former Division for the hearing and determination of that appeal or proceeding:

And whereas an appeal by Dominion Airlines, Limited (in liquidation), from the judgment of the Supreme Court delivered by the Honourable Mr. Justice Reed at Wellington on the twenty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, in an action wherein William Thomas Strand was plaintiff and the said Dominion Airlines, Limited (in liquidation), was defendant, was set down for hearing at the sitting of the Second Division of the Court of Appeal which commenced on the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Michael Myers, P.C., K.C.M.G., Chief Justice of New Zealand, and the Honourable Henry Hubert Ostler, a Judge of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, have certified that the said appeal is of special difficulty and importance:
