

Lands permanently reserved in the Marlborough and Canterbury Land Districts.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by the three-hundred-and-fifty-ninth section of the Land Act, 1924, it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time set apart temporarily as reserves, notwithstanding that the same may be then held under pastoral license, any Crown lands which in his opinion are required for any of the purposes in the said section mentioned:

And whereas by the three-hundred-and-sixtieth section of the said Act it is provided that land temporarily reserved under the said three-hundred-and-fifty-ninth section may, at the expiration of one month, but not later than six months, after the publication in the Gazette of notice of such temporary reservation, be permanently reserved, and that notice of such permanent reservation shall be published in the Gazette.

And whereas the lands described in the Schedule hereto were, by Warrants dated the twenty-eighth day of July, and the third day of August respectively, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, and published in Gazette of the fourth and the eleventh days of August of that year, temporarily reserved under the authority of the said Act for river-protection purposes:

Now, therefore, I, Charles, Baron Bledisloe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the said Act, do hereby permanently reserve the lands described in the Schedule hereto for river-protection purposes, for which the said lands were so temporarily reserved as aforesaid.
