PURSUANT to the British Nationality and Status of Aliens (in New Zealand) Act, 1928, and every other power him enabling, His Excellency the Governor-General with the advice and consent of the Executive Council and with the concurrence of the Right Honourable the Chief Justice and seven of the other members of the Rules Committee constituted under the Judicature Amendment Act, 1930 (four of such other members being Judges of the Supreme Court), doth hereby make the following rules.

RULES.

1. THESE rules may be cited as the Naturalization Revocation Rules, 1932.
2. These rules shall take effect on the publication thereof in the Gazette.
3. Where any case is referred by the Minister of Internal Affairs to the Court pursuant to subsection (4) of section 7 of the First Schedule to the British Nationality and Status of Aliens (in New Zealand) Act, 1928, the Court shall cause at least seven days' notice of the inquiry in such form as the Court thinks fit to be sent by post to the last known address of the person to whom the inquiry relates.
4. Such notice shall state—
 - (a) The grounds on which the certificate of naturalization is proposed to be revoked.
 - (b) The time when the inquiry will be held.
 - (c) The place at which the inquiry will be held.
5. Such notice shall inform the person concerned that he will be entitled to be present at the inquiry and to be represented thereat by counsel or solicitor.

7. If the Court considers that a notice so sent by post is unlikely to reach the person to whom it is addressed the Court may cause notice to be given in such manner as it thinks fit of the time when and the place at which the inquiry will be held, the name of the person affected, and any other particulars which the Court thinks should be so notified.

8. The inquiry may be adjourned from time to time as the Court thinks fit.

9. The Court may act on and may receive as evidence any statement, document, information, or matter which in the opinion of the Court may assist the Court to deal effectually with the matters before it, whether the same would, apart from this provision, be legally admissible evidence or not.

10. The Court may if it thinks fit invite the Minister of the Crown in charge of any Government Department which appears to the Court to be interested to appoint a person to represent him at any inquiry and a person so appointed may attend such inquiry accordingly.

11. The Court may allow or refuse to allow the public or any portion of the public to be present during any proceedings under these rules.

12. In all matters not hereby expressly provided for the rules contained in the Code of Civil Procedure set forth in the Second Schedule to the Judicature Act, 1908, with the amendments of the said rules which are now or may hereafter be in force, shall apply.
