Regulations under the War Pensions Act, 1915.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 21st day of November, 1932.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on him by the War Pensions Act, 1915, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby amend the additional regulations made under the said Act on the eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and published in the Gazette of the ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, by revoking clause nine thereof and substituting the following regulation.

REGULATION.

9. WHERE a disabled member of the Forces in receipt of a pension is, with the approval of the Commissioner of Pensions, an inmate of a hospital or other institution, or is an inmate of an institution under the Mental Defectives Act, 1911, whose mental disability has been accepted by the War Pensions Board as attributable to or aggravated by his war service, the maximum amount that shall be paid to him by way of pension either directly or by arrangement with the authorities of the institution shall be 10s. a week, and any balance shall be retained and paid to him on his discharge, or paid, at the discretion of the War Pensions Board, to the wife or such other person as may be determined by the War Pensions Board:

Provided that no payment by way of pension shall be made to or on behalf of any disabled member of the Forces detained in an institution under the Mental Defectives Act, 1911, without the prior consent of the Public Trustee.
