

Prohibiting the Importation of Certain Goods from the Commonwealth of Australia.—(C. No. 92.)

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 15th day of December, 1932.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. G. W. FORBES PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-six of the Customs Act, 1913, as amended by the Customs Amendment Act, 1921, and of every other power and authority enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby prohibit, save with the consent of the Minister of Customs, the importation either directly or indirectly from the Commonwealth of Australia (including wherever the term is used in this Order in Council the territories and dependencies thereof and of any State thereof) of all fruit and vegetables (other than dried, canned, pickled, pulped, or bottled fruit and vegetables) grown or produced in the said Commonwealth of Australia; provided that this Order shall not apply to any such fruit or vegetables exported from the Commonwealth of Australia on or before the sixteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

This Order in Council shall come into force on the date of the publication of the same in the New Zealand Gazette.

F. D. THOMSON,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Excise Duty on Tobacco.—(C. No. 93.)

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 15th day of December, 1932.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. G. W. FORBES PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the Tobacco Act, 1908, Part II of the Customs Acts Amendment Act, 1932, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby fix the excise duty which shall be levied, collected, and paid upon the following classes of tobacco (as enumerated in section twenty-four of the Customs Acts Amendment Act, 1931) manufactured in New Zealand and entered therein for home consumption on or after the date of publication of this Order in the Gazette, at the rates set out below, namely:—

Additional Customs Regulations.—(C. No. 94.)

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 15th day of December, 1932.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. G. W. FORBES PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by the Customs Act, 1913, and the Customs Amendment Act, 1921, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the Order in Council made on the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and published in the Gazette on the second day of October, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and doth, to the extent hereinafter appearing, hereby modify the Customs (Tariff Preference and General) Regulations, 1925, made by Order in Council on the twenty-first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, and published in the Gazette on the twenty-sixth day of the same month at page 3265; and doth, with the like advice and consent, make the following regulations for the purposes of the said Acts: and doth hereby order that such modifications shall take effect and that the following regulations shall come into force on the date of the publication of this Order in the Gazette.

ADDITIONAL CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.

(1) THESE regulations may be cited as the Additional Customs (Tariff Preference and General) Regulations, 1932, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Customs regulations made by Order in Council on the 29th day of June, 1914, and published in the Gazette on the 2nd day of July, 1914, at page 2675, and the Customs (Tariff Preference and General) Regulations, 1925.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in clause 5 of the Customs (Tariff Preference and General) Regulations, 1925, tobacco (as hereinafter defined) shall not be deemed to be the produce or manufacture of any particular country unless the final process of manufacture has been performed in that country, and unless also the expenditure in material produced in that country and/or labour performed within that country (calculated subject to the qualification in clause 6 of the Customs (Tariff Preference and General) Regulations, 1925), in each and every case, is not less than three-quarters of the factory or works cost of such tobacco in its finished state:

Provided that this regulation shall not apply to tobacco manufactured in the United Kingdom (including Northern Ireland), or in any colony, dependency, or protectorate belonging to or held by His Majesty in right of the United Kingdom (except India); and to tobacco manufactured in any of such countries and territories the Customs (Tariff Preference and General) Regulations, 1925, shall apply as if these regulations had not been made.

(3) Except as modified by these regulations, or except in so far as they are inconsistent with these regulations, the Customs (Tariff Preference and General) Regulations, 1925, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to tobacco.

(4) Notwithstanding the making of these regulations all duties which have become due and payable and all penalties and forfeitures which have been incurred prior to the coming into force of these regulations shall be recovered and enforced in the same manner as if these regulations had not been made.

(5) For the purposes of these regulations "tobacco" includes cigars and cigarettes, but does not include unmanufactured tobacco.

F. D. THOMSON,

Clerk of the Executive Council.
