Open Season for Moose Shooting, Southland Acclimatization District (Fiordland National Park).

IN exercise of the powers vested in me by the Animals Protection and Game Act, 1921-22, I, Adam Hamilton, Minister of Internal Affairs of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby declare the period from the 1st day of March, 1932, to the 30th day of April, 1932 (both days inclusive), to be an open season in that portion of the Southland Acclimatization District, described in the First Schedule hereto for the taking or killing of the following imported game—viz., moose bulls and cows—subject to the following conditions.

CONDITIONS.

1. LICENSES to take or kill moose bulls and cows may be issued by the Chief Postmaster, Invercargill, on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Southland Acclimatization Society, on payment of a license fee of £10 in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule hereto, and subject to the said Act and regulations thereunder, and this notification.
2. No licensee shall allow any dog to accompany either himself or any attendant he may have with him.
3. The fees paid for licenses issued pursuant to this notification shall, after deducting the cost of and incidental to the issue of such licenses, and any other expenses in connection therewith, be paid to the Department of Internal Affairs and the Southland Acclimatization Society in equal proportions.
4. Any person committing a breach of any of these conditions is liable on conviction to a fine of £20.

FIRST SCHEDULE.
