Extension of Copyright Act, 1913, to the Federated Malay States.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 6th day of February, 1933.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and gazetted on the first day of April then instant (hereinafter referred to as "the said Order"), the Copyright Act, 1913, was extended to the foreign countries therein mentioned, subject to the provisions set out in the said Order:

And whereas it is desired to extend the said Order to the Federated Malay States:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the Copyright Act, 1913, doth hereby direct as follows:—

1. The Copyright Act, 1913, including the provisions as to existing works, shall, subject to the provisions of the said Act and of this Order, apply—

- (a) To works first published in the Federated Malay States in like manner as if they had been first published within New Zealand;
- (b) To literary, dramatic, musical, and artistic works the authors whereof were at the time of the making of the work subjects of the rulers of the Federated Malay States, in like manner as if the authors had been British subjects;
- (c) In respect of residence in the Federated Malay States, in like manner as if such residence were residence in New Zealand.

2. Where any musical work to which this Order applies has been published before the date of this Order, but no contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed have before the said date been lawfully made or placed on sale within New Zealand, copyright in the work shall include all rights conferred by the said Act with respect to the making of records, perforated rolls, and other contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed.

3. In the application to works to which this Order applies to section three, subsection two (d), and section twenty-five of the Copyright Act, 1913, the commencement of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the said Act in section twenty-five, subsections seven and eight, wherever that expression occurs.

4. Where any person has, before the date of this Order, taken any action whereby he has incurred any expenditure or liability in connection with the reproduction or performance of any work in a manner which at the time was lawful, or for the purpose of or with a view to the reproduction or performance of a work at a time when such reproduction or performance would, but for the making of this Order, have been lawful, nothing in this Order shall diminish or prejudice any rights or interest arising from or in connection with such action which are subsisting and valuable at the said date unless the person who, by virtue of this Order, becomes entitled to restrain such reproduction or performance agrees to pay such compensation as failing agreement may be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1913.

This Order shall come into operation on the sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, which date is in this Order referred to as the commencement of this Order.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
