

Validating proceedings in connection with the Feilding Borough Council's Loan of £3,500.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 27th day of March, 1933.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the Feilding Borough Council lately proceeded to raise a loan of three thousand five hundred pounds (£3,500) under section seventeen (b) of the Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1926, by a loan to be known as Repayment Loan, 1933, for the purpose of redeeming the outstanding liability in respect of a loan of three thousand five hundred pounds (£3,500) which matured in February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three :

And whereas the proceedings in connection with the said loan were irregular or defective in that—

(a) The resolution of the Feilding Borough Council at its ordinary meeting held on the eighth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, authorizing the taking of all necessary steps to raise the above-mentioned loan did not comply with the provisions of section sixty-two, subsection one, of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1920, relating to special meetings and special orders, in that such resolution did not specify the time and place at which the special meeting of the said Council, held on the ninth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in order to pass a special resolution by way of special order to raise the said loan, was to be held :

(b) The notice in writing given under the hand of the Town Clerk of the Feilding Borough Council calling the special meeting of the Council held on the ninth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, did not comply with the provisions of section sixty-two, subsection two, of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1920, in that such notice in writing was not given two clear days before the day appointed for such meeting :

And whereas it appears that the ratepayers of the district have not been misled by such irregularities or defects as aforesaid, and it is expedient to validate the same :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by section one hundred and twenty-two of the Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1926, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that the proceedings in connection with the said loan shall be valid to all intents and purposes as though—

(a) The resolution mentioned above had specified the time and place at which the special meeting of the Feilding Borough Council, held on the ninth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in order to pass a special resolution by way of special order to raise the said loan was to be held :

(b) The notice in writing referred to above calling the said special meeting had been given two clear days before the day appointed for such meeting,— and that the validity of the proceedings in connection with the said loan or the validity of the security for the said loan shall not be called in question by reason only of the irregularities or defects aforesaid.
