

(9) If the total number of nominations so received exceeds two in number the Under-Secretary shall prepare a list of nominated candidates and send a copy thereof to each of the said local authorities and each of the said local authorities shall hold a meeting at eight p.m. on Thursday, the ninth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and allocate by resolution its prescribed number of votes to each of not more than two candidates. A copy of such resolution shall be forwarded to the Under-Secretary within forty-eight hours after the time hereby fixed for the meeting, and the names of the elected candidates shall be notified by the Under-Secretary in the Gazette.

(10) For subsequent elections the Secretary for the time being of the Auckland Metropolitan Fire Board shall be the Returning Officer.

(11) In the month of April in each alternate year commencing in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five or so often as an extraordinary vacancy may occur, the Returning Officer shall give notice in writing to each of the said local authorities that an election is to be held in the month of May following, or within one month of the date of the occurrence of an extraordinary vacancy, as the case may be.

(12) The Returning Officer shall at the same time fix and notify as aforesaid the date and time of the meetings at which the votes of the said local authorities will be recorded. Such date and time shall be the same in respect of each of the said local authorities and such date is hereinafter referred to as "the date of the election."

(13) The Returning Officer shall in his notice given to the said local authorities also state the number of votes exercisable by each of the said local authorities in terms of the said section seven.

(14) Each of the said local authorities may nominate candidates (not exceeding in number the number required to be elected) by special resolution, a sealed copy of which together with the written consent of each nominee to his nomination shall be lodged with the Returning Officer not less than seven days prior to the date of the election.

(15) The Returning Officer shall thereupon prepare a list of nominated candidates and send a copy thereof to each of the said local authorities, which shall at the meeting fixed as aforesaid, by resolution allocate its prescribed number of votes to each of not more than two candidates, and lodge a sealed copy of such resolution with the Returning Officer within forty-eight hours after the time fixed for the meeting.

(16) In the event of an equality of votes the Returning Officer shall have a casting-vote, or two casting-votes if necessary, to enable the issue to be decided.

(17) The Returning Officer shall report the result of the election to each local authority and to the Minister of Internal Affairs.

(18) No failure on the part of any of the said local authorities to hold a meeting as hereby prescribed, or to carry at such meeting a resolution allocating its votes, or to lodge a sealed copy of such resolution with the Returning Officer within the time hereby prescribed, or otherwise to exercise its power of voting shall affect the regularity of any election.
