

Import Duties Act of United Kingdom.

Customs Department,

Wellington, 18th May, 1933.

WITH reference to the third paragraph of the notification published in the Gazette of 3rd March, 1932, at page 441 and to the notification published in the Gazette of 2nd March, 1933, at page 379, regarding the form of invoice and certificate of origin required to be produced to the Customs authorities in the United Kingdom in order that manufactured goods (other than butter, cheese, fruit, and other primary produce) exported from New Zealand may be entitled to the benefits of the exemptions from duty contained in the Import Duties Act of the United Kingdom, it is hereby notified for public information that, according to advice received by the Customs Department, the classes of manufactured goods set out in the Schedule hereto will not be deemed to have been manufactured in the British Empire, for the purpose of the said exemptions, unless at least 50 per cent. of their value is the result of labour within the British Empire, or is derived from materials grown or produced within the British Empire.

The above-mentioned notification, gazetted on 2nd March, 1933, is hereby cancelled.

GEO. CRAIG, Comptroller of Customs.
