Wellington, 30th May, 1932, at page 441, it is hereby notified for public information that, according to advice received by the Customs Department, the form of invoice and certificate of origin set out therein for produce entering the United Kingdom has been cancelled.

In future, in order that New Zealand produce exported to the United Kingdom may be entitled to the benefits of the exemptions from duty provided for in the legislation of the United Kingdom, it is necessary that certificates should be produced to the Customs authorities in that country in the form set out in the Schedule hereto.

Exporters of goods to the United Kingdom should, therefore, see that with respect to all future shipments of New Zealand produce entitled to preference in the United Kingdom certificates in that form are forwarded with the documents relating to goods.

A form of certificate different from that set out in the Schedule is required for A form of certificate different from that set out in the Schedule is required for manufactured goods (i.e., other than butter, cheese, fruit, and other primary products) entitled to preference in the United Kingdom.
