

For the Dominion of New Zealand, His Excellency Sir Claud Russell, his Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Portuguese Republic;

For the Union of South Africa, His Excellency Sir Claud Russell, his Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Portuguese Republic;

For India, His Excellency Sir Claud Russell, his Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Portuguese Republic;

The President of the Portuguese Republic;

His Excellency Commander Fernando Augusto Branco, Minister for Foreign Affairs;

Who, having communicated to each other their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:—

Article 1.

Article 3 of the Extradition Treaty of the 17th October, 1892, is hereby cancelled and the following provisions are substituted in lieu thereof:—

“The High Contracting Parties shall not in any case or under any pretext be compelled to surrender their own subjects or citizens, whether by birth or by naturalisation, provided that the naturalisation took place previous to the commission of the crime or offence giving rise to the application for extradition.”

Article 2.

The present Convention shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Lisbon as soon as possible.

It shall come into force ten days after its publication in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties, and shall have the same force and duration as the Treaty to which it relates.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention, and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done in duplicate at Lisbon, the 20th day of January, 1932.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged at Lisbon on the 29th day of December, 1932:

And whereas His Majesty has ratified the said Convention in respect of, and the said Convention thereby extends to, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (including for this purpose the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man), and all British Colonies, and also the following Dominions, to wit: The Commonwealth of Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa, and Newfoundland; and India:

And whereas His Majesty has been advised by His Ministers in the aforementioned Dominions to take the necessary steps to cause the said recited Acts to be applied in the case of Portugal in respect of the aforementioned Dominions in accordance with the said Treaty as modified by the said Convention:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to him by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

- (1) From and after the 10th day of July, 1933, the Extradition Acts, 1870–1906, shall apply in the case of Portugal, in respect of the above-mentioned parts of His Majesty's dominions, under and in accordance with the said Treaty of the 17th October, 1892, as modified by the Convention of the 20th January, 1932.
- (2) This Order may be cited as the “Portugal (Extradition) Order in Council, 1933.”
