

"The person using such boat as aforesaid shall not use such boat in any manner which shall obstruct the flow of the water or divert the movements of the whitebait: Provided, however, that no person shall use any boat as aforesaid for whitebait-fishing unless such boat is registered and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the said Act.

"(b) Any person fishing for whitebait in the Taieri River may use a fishing stand or jetty, provided that such stand or jetty does not extend into the river more than 9 ft. from the landward end, and that the understructure of such stand or jetty shall not consist of stakes other than those required to support a plank or platform on which such person may stand. No person shall construct a stand or jetty which shall obstruct the flow of the water or divert the movements of the whitebait."

Amending Regulations for Trout and Perch Fishing in the Wellington Acclimatization District.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 21st day of August, 1933.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council dated the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and the seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, and published in the Gazette of the third day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, at page 2534, and the fifteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, at page 1996, respectively, regulations were made for trout and perch fishing in the Wellington Acclimatization District:

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said regulations: Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Fisheries Act, 1908, and its amendments, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke Regulations 5, 6, 7, and 16 of the regulations made on the seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two, and doth hereby make the following regulations in lieu thereof, and doth hereby declare that such regulations shall take effect as from the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

"5. No person shall fish for trout, perch, or other acclimatized fish in the upper reaches of the Waikanae River and its tributaries from its junction with the Ngatiawa River.

"6. No person shall fish for trout, perch, or other acclimatized fish in the lakes, rivers, and streams of the said district with any lure or bait other than artificial ones: Provided, however, that artificial and live baits may be used in the Otaki, below the railway bridge; the Waikanae, below Buchanan's house; the Mangahao, below the two dams; the Ohau, below the railway bridge; the Horowhenua Lake; the Manawatu, from the mouth to the Ngawapurua Bridge; the Oroua, from the Awahuri Bridge to its junction with the Manawatu River; the Rangitikei; the Turakina; the Wangaehu; the Hutt, from the mouth to the Belmont Stream, and from the Moonshine Bridge to its source; the Whakataki; the Pahaoa; the Wairarapa Lake; the Tauherenikau; the Haungaroa; the Waiohine; the Taueru; the Waingawa; the Ruamahunga, below the Te Ore Ore Road Bridge; the Tiraumea; the Makakahi, within the Pahiatua County: Provided, further, that in the Hutt River between Belmont Creek and Moonshine Bridge artificial baits and bully only may be used.

"7. No person shall use any sinker or weight exceeding the weight of half an ounce when fishing with live bait in waters where such bait may be used: Provided that there shall be no restriction on the weight of sinkers used for perch-fishing in the Tauherenikau River up to the bridge crossing the river on the Featherston-Martinborough Road, and in the Ruamahunga River up to the bridge crossing the river on the Kahutara Road, and also in the Wairarapa Lake and lagoons.

"16. No person shall take or catch more than fifteen trout in any one day."
