Revoking Regulations as to Licenses to fish for Atlantic Salmon (Salmo Salar) in the Southland Acclimatization District, and making others in lieu thereof.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 18th day of September, 1933.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and published in the Gazette of the tenth day of the same month, at page 2766, regulations were made for licenses to fish for Atlantic salmon (Salmo salar) in the Southland Acclimatization District :

And whereas it is desirable to revoke the said regulations and to prescribe others in lieu thereof :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by sections eighty-three and ninety-four of the Fisheries Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the regulations of the seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and doth hereby make the following regulations in lieu thereof.

REGULATIONS.

1. THE period from the 1st day of May to the 30th day of September, both days inclusive, in any year, is hereby declared to be a close season for Atlantic salmon, during which period no person shall take or have in his possession any Atlantic salmon, or the young or spawn thereof :

Provided that during the period from the 1st day of October, 1933, until the 30th day of September, 1934, both days inclusive, no person shall fish for trout, perch, tench, or Atlantic salmon by any method whatsoever in the Upukuroro River, or in that portion of Lake Te Anau within a quarter of a mile on either side of the mouths of the river as indicated by posts painted white :

Provided further that this regulation shall not apply to Atlantic salmon taken by any officer of the Marine Department for the purpose of pisciculture or scientific investigation :

Provided further that, with the consent of the Minister of Marine, it shall be lawful for the Southland Acclimatization Society to take from such rivers or streams, as may be defined by the Minister after such consent, salmon for the purpose of pisciculture within the Southland Acclimatization District.

2. During the period from the 1st day of October, 1933, until the 30th day of September, 1934, both days inclusive, no person shall fish for trout, perch, tench, or Atlantic salmon from a boat of any description whatsoever in the waters mentioned hereunder :—

(a) All that portion of the bay in Lake Te Anau east of a line drawn from Blue Gum Point to the mouth of the first creek north of the Upukuroro River as marked by posts painted red ;

(b) Within a radius of a quarter of a mile off the mouth or mouths of the Eglinton River ;

(c) Lakes Gunn and Fergus.

3. No person shall fish for or take Atlantic salmon without a license, and every person fishing shall, on the demand of any ranger, constable, or officer of the Marine Department or of the Southland Acclimatization Society, or of any person producing a license to fish for Atlantic salmon, produce and show to such ranger, constable, officer, or person, his license and the contents of his creel or bag, and the bait used by him for taking such salmon.

4. The holder of a valid license to take trout issued by any Acclimatization Society within the Dominion, with the exception of a license issued in respect of the Rotorua Acclimatization District, or Taupo waters, shall be deemed to be the holder of a license for the purposes of these regulations.

5. Any person who, at any time within the two years immediately preceding his application for a license, has been convicted of any breach of the provisions of Part II of the said Act or of any regulations made thereunder, shall be debarred from having issued to him any license to fish for Atlantic salmon during a period of two years from the date of such conviction, and if such person is at the time of such conviction the holder of such license, the said license shall, from the date of his conviction, be null and void.

6. No person holding a license under these regulations shall fish for Atlantic salmon with any bait other than natural or artificial fly, minnow, smelt, bully, insect, or spoon-bait :

Provided that in the Eglinton River no person shall fish for trout, perch, tench, or Atlantic salmon with any lure or bait other than minnow or fly.

7. No cross-line fishing, stroke-hauling, or any other sportsmanlike device shall be used for the purpose of taking, catching, or killing Atlantic salmon.

8. No person shall buy, sell, or expose for sale any Atlantic salmon or fish for the purpose of obtaining Atlantic salmon for sale.

9. No person being the holder of a license for the purpose of these regulations shall take or catch more than six Atlantic salmon in any one day :

Provided that in the Eglinton River no person shall take or catch more than three Atlantic salmon in any one day.

10. Every Atlantic salmon not exceeding 15 in. in length from the nose to the tip of the tail taken or caught by any person shall immediately be returned alive into the water whence the same is taken.

11. No person shall fish for, take, or kill Atlantic salmon otherwise than with one rod and line, but such person may use a landing net or gaff to secure any Atlantic salmon caught with such rod and line.

12. Any person committing a breach of any of these regulations shall be liable to a fine of £50.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
