

- (c) Thirdly, in redemption in accordance with the direction of the local authority of any existing securities redeemed by the local authority pursuant to the power conferred in that behalf by the next succeeding clause ;
- (d) Fourthly, if all the holders of the existing securities issued in respect of the loans referred to in the First Schedule consent thereto in payment of the balance to the local authority.

REDEMPTION OF EXISTING SECURITIES.

20. (1) Where the whole of the existing securities issued in respect of any loan referred to in the First Schedule are held by one holder, and such holder is the Commissioner of the existing sinking fund of such loan, the local authority may agree with such holder for the redemption of any such existing securities at the date of conversion.

(2) Payment of the moneys required for the purpose of such redemption may be made out of any existing sinking fund pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

SECURITIES HELD BY TRUSTEES.

21. The provisions of sections twenty-two, twenty-three, and twenty-four of the New Zealand Debt Conversion Act, 1932-33 (relating to the adjustment of premiums as between capital and income and to the powers of trustees and other persons in relation thereto), shall apply with respect to existing securities converted into new securities in accordance with this Order in the same way as they apply with respect to securities converted under that Act, save that the references in the said section twenty-two to the first day of April, shall be construed as references to the day following the date of conversion.

BROKERAGE.

22. The local authority shall not, in respect of the conversion into new securities of any existing securities to which this Order applies, enter into any contract for the payment of brokerage at a rate exceeding one-quarter per centum of the amount of such existing securities.
