Placing Part of Korokoro Stream under Petone Borough Council.—(H.H. 127.)

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section sixty-two of the Health Act, 1920, it is provided that the Governor-General may, if he thinks fit, in the interests of public health, by notice in the Gazette, place any specified watercourse, stream, lake, or other source of water-supply, or any specified portion thereof, under the control of any local authority for the purpose of preventing the pollution thereof, notwithstanding that it may not be within the district of that local authority, or on land belonging to that local authority:

And whereas the Petone Borough Council is desirous of obtaining control of portion of the Korokoro Stream from which the Borough water-supply is drawn, in order more effectually to control sources of pollution of such supply:

Now, therefore, I, Charles, Baron Bledisloe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on me by section sixty-two of the Health Act, 1920, do by this notice place all those catchment areas of the Korokoro Stream and its tributaries from the intake of the Petone Borough water-supply to the sources of that stream and its tributaries under the control of the Petone Borough Council for the purpose of preventing the pollution thereof.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 6th day of January, 1934.

J. A. YOUNG, Minister of Health.

Officer authorized to take and receive Statutory Declarations.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

PURSUANT to the authority conferred upon me by the three-hundred-and-first section of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1927, I, Charles, Baron Bledisloe, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby notify and declare that Robert Osborne Symons, being an officer in the service of the Crown holding the office of Postmaster at Clyde, is authorized to take and receive statutory declarations under the three-hundred-and-first section of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1927.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 20th day of December, 1933.

JOHN G. COBBE, Minister of Justice.
