BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

PURSUANT to section five of the Money-lenders Act, 1908 (hereinafter called "the principal Act"), and section fifteen of the Money-lenders Amendment Act, 1933 (hereinafter called "the Amendment Act"), His Excellency the Governor-General doth hereby make the regulations hereinafter set out.

REGULATIONS.

1. THESE regulations may be cited as "The Money-lenders Regulations, 1934," and shall come into force on the day following the publication thereof in the Gazette.

2. The regulations enuring under the principal Act and made on the 6th day of January, 1902, and published in the Gazette on the 9th day of January, 1902, at page 14, are hereby revoked.

3. In these regulations "private address" means residential address.

4. There shall be kept by the Clerk of every Magistrate's Court a register in the form No. 1 in the Schedule hereto, to be known as the "Register of Money-lenders."

5. The following matters shall be recorded in the Register:—

(a) Particulars of every license granted, and of all renewals thereof, abandonments of registered addresses, additional registered addresses, and surrenders:

(b) Particulars of any convictions recorded against the money-lender and particulars of any suspension or cancellation of registration or disqualification imposed upon the money-lender or any person responsible for the management of the money-lending business carried on by a convicted money-lender pursuant to section 5 of the Amendment Act:

(c) Any particulars directed by a Court to be endorsed on a license pursuant to subsection (2) of section 14 of the Amendment Act.

6. Every cancellation or suspension of registration of a money-lender shall be forthwith notified to the Under-Secretary of Justice by the Clerk of Court whose duty it is to make an entry thereof in the register.

7. Every application for registration of a money-lender under the principal Act, or for a renewal thereof, shall be made in writing in the form No. 2 in the Schedule hereto, and shall be so made in duplicate.

8. The application shall be signed or executed by the money-lender, or, where the business is carried on by a society or corporate body, may be signed by the secretary or other person responsible for the management thereof, or, where the business is carried on by a firm, by one of the partners thereof.

9. Where the business is carried on by a partnership firm there shall be stated in the application, in addition to the name under which it is proposed to carry on business, the names, addresses, and occupations of all the partners other than special partners of a special partnership under Part II of the Partnership Act, 1908.

10. In the case of a society or corporate body not required by law to have a registered office, there shall be stated in the application the principal office or place of business of the society or body or the address at which notices may be served thereon.

11. In the case of a corporate body there shall be stated in the application the name of the Act of Parliament or particulars of the charter by or under which incorporation was effected.

12. Both copies of the application shall be lodged at the Magistrate's Court nearest by the most convenient route to the place named in the application as the place of business or the principal place of business of the money-lender, or, where the application is for renewal of registration, at the Magistrate's Court out of which the original license was issued.

13. The application for registration shall be accompanied by testimonials signed by not less than five reputable persons as to (a) the good character of the money-lender, or (as the case may be) of every partner in the money-lending firm, or, in the case of a society or corporate body, of the persons proposed to be made responsible for the management thereof, and (b) the fitness to hold a license of the money-lender or of every partner in the money-lending firm or of every person proposed to be made responsible for the management of the business.

14. Notice in the form No. 3 in the Schedule hereto of every application for registration under the said Act shall be published by the applicant twice at least in some newspaper to be approved for that purpose by the Clerk of the Court at which the application for registration is lodged, and the application for registration shall not be considered before the expiry of one month after the first publication of such notice.

15. One of the copies of every application for registration of a money-lender or for renewal thereof shall be forthwith forwarded by the Clerk of Court to the nearest Police officer, who shall procure a report thereon to be forwarded for the Magistrate's information and guidance.

16. An application for the renewal of registration of a money-lender under the said Act may be lodged not earlier than the 1st day of January and not later than the last day of February preceding the date of the expiry of the registration:

Provided that the Magistrate may, in his discretion, consider any application for a renewal of registration lodged not later than the date of expiry of the registration, notwithstanding that such application may not have been lodged within the times limited by this regulation.
