

7. Where the premium payable in respect of any motor-vehicle is fixed by reference to its seating-accommodation the following rules shall apply:—

- (a) If the vehicle has been licensed as a passenger-service vehicle its seating-accommodation shall be deemed to be the seating capacity of the vehicle determined in accordance with the Passenger-service Vehicle (Constructional) Regulations, 1933, or any regulations made in substitution therefor or in amendment thereof.
- (b) If the vehicle has not been licensed as a passenger-service vehicle, its seating-accommodation shall be determined by including as a separate seat—
 - (i) Every clearly defined seat the vehicle is designed or equipped to carry;
 - (ii) Every complete 16 in. of the length of an undivided seat.

8. Where pursuant to section 15 of the Motor-vehicles Act, 1924, the registration of any motor-vehicle is cancelled on the ground that the vehicle has been destroyed, or has become permanently useless as a motor-vehicle, or has been permanently removed from New Zealand, and at the time of such cancellation there is in force in respect of the motor-vehicle a contract of insurance under the said Act, the insurance company with which such contract of insurance has been effected shall, on application in writing made by the owner of the motor-vehicle, and on being satisfied that the registration of the motor-vehicle has been cancelled as aforesaid, refund to the owner a sum equal to one-twelfth part of the prescribed premium for every complete month between the date of the happening of the event which led to the cancellation of registration and the end of the term of the contract of insurance.

9. From every premium paid in respect of any contract of insurance under the said Act the sum of 6d. shall be deducted for administration expenses in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of section 15 thereof.
