Amending Rules for the Examination of Engineers.

Marine Department,
Wellington, 9th May, 1934.

WHEREAS by Warrant dated the twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and published in the Gazette of the fifth day of March following, at page 479, rules were made relating to the examination of engineers in the Mercantile Marine:

And whereas it is desirable to further amend the said rules: Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon me by section 23 of the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, I do hereby make the following amendments to the hereinbefore-recited rules.

RULES.

1. RULE 38 (b) (2) is hereby revoked and the following rule substituted therefor:—

“38. (b) (2) Have served at sea, in home-trade steamships of not less than 99 nominal horsepower and/or home-trade motor-ships of not less than 560 brake horse-power, for two years and three months as first or second engineer; or three years as third or fourth engineer, being senior engineer in charge of the whole watch on the main propelling machinery.”

2. Rule 46 is hereby amended by adding to the end of the said rule the following paragraph:—

“Candidates who qualify by service as second in seniority in the engine-room or as assistant engineer below this rank will be subjected to a somewhat more searching examination than those who have performed the required amount of service while in charge of a full watch.”

JOHN G. COBBE, Minister of Marine.

Removal of Prohibition of Issue of Money-orders and Transmission of Postal Correspondence for A. J. Richards, Otahuhu.

THE Postmaster-General of the Dominion of New Zealand being satisfied that the person whose name and address are shown in the Schedule hereunder is no longer engaged in promoting or carrying out a lottery or scheme of chance, hereby rescinds the order made on the 23rd day of April, 1934, under the provisions of section 32 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, prohibiting the issue of money-orders in favour of and the transmission within New Zealand of postal packets addressed to the said person, and orders that such money-orders shall be issued and that such postal packets shall be registered, forwarded, and delivered in the usual course.

SCHEDULE.

A. J. Richards, Hairdresser and Tobacconist, Great South Road, Otahuhu.

Dated at Wellington, this 14th day of May, 1934.

JOHN G. COBBE, for Postmaster-General.

Prohibition of Issue of Money-orders and Transmission of Postal Correspondence.

THE Postmaster-General of the Dominion of New Zealand having reasonable ground for supposing that the persons whose names and addresses are shown in the Schedule hereunder are engaged in promoting or carrying out a lottery or scheme of chance, it is hereby ordered, under section 32 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, that no money-order in favour of any of the said persons shall be issued, and that no postal packet addressed to any of the said persons (either by his or her own or any fictitious or assumed name), or addressed to any of the addresses in the Schedule hereunder without a name, shall be either registered or forwarded by the Post Office of New Zealand.
