Order in Council varying certain Provisions of the Napier Borough Loans Conversion Order, 1934.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 9th day of July, 1934.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the Napier Borough Loans Conversion Order, 1934, made on the twelfth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four, and published in the Gazette on the fifteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four, and subject to and in accordance with the provisions of such Order, consent was given by the Governor-General in Council, acting in pursuance of the authority conferred by the Local Authorities Interest Reduction and Loans Conversion Act, 1932-33, to the issue of new securities in conversion of existing securities issued in respect of the loans referred to in the First Schedule of such Order:

And whereas it is expedient to vary certain of the provisions aforesaid relating to the conversion of such existing securities:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on him by subsection two of section thirteen of the said Local Authorities Interest Reduction and Loans Conversion Act, 1932-33, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, doth order as follows:—

1. This order may be cited as the Napier Borough Loans Conversion Amendment Order, 1934, and shall be read together with and form part of the Napier Borough Loans Conversion Order, 1934 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order).

2. The principal order is hereby amended by adding after clause twenty-three thereof the following new clause:—

“23A. For the purposes of the last two preceding clauses the sinking fund of every loan set out in the First Schedule hereto, of which the Public Trustee is holder of some only of the existing securities issued in respect thereof, shall be divided into two parts, the first of which shall bear to the second the same proportion which the amount of the existing securities so held by the Public Trustee bears to the amount of the existing securities held by persons other than the Public Trustee. The said parts shall be applied as follows:—

“(a) The first part of such sinking fund shall be applied by the Commissioner thereof in accordance with the provisions of clause twenty-two hereof as if the existing securities issued in respect of the loan and held by the Public Trustee were a separate loan within the meaning of that clause, and such first part of the sinking fund were the sinking fund of such separate loan.

“(b) The second part of such sinking fund shall be applied by the Commissioner thereof in accordance with the provisions of clause twenty-three hereof as if the existing securities issued in respect of the loan and held by persons other than the Public Trustee were a separate loan within the meaning of that clause and such second part of the sinking fund were the sinking fund of such separate loan.”

Regulations as to Appeals under Section 3 of the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Amendment Act, 1933.—(Notice No. Ag. 3199.)

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 9th day of July, 1934.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by section three of the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Amendment Act, 1933, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for the purposes of that section.

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations, unless inconsistent with the context,—

“Licensing authority” means the society, or person, or body of persons authorized to issue licenses under any by-laws made pursuant to the said Act or by which or by whom was forfeited a deposit paid by a licensee by way of security for due compliance with the terms and conditions of his license:

“The said Act” means the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Amendment Act, 1933.

2. Every appeal pursuant to subsection (3) of section 3 of the said Act shall be in the form in the Schedule hereto or to the like effect, and shall be lodged at the office of the Clerk of the Magistrate’s Court nearest by the most convenient route to the address of the licensing authority within fourteen days of the receipt by the appellant of notice of the decision in respect of which the appeal is made. A copy of the appeal shall within such time as aforesaid be served on the licensing authority by being left at the address thereof or by registered letter so posted as to be delivered in the ordinary course of post before the expiration of such time as aforesaid.

3. The time and place fixed for the hearing of the appeal shall be notified by the Clerk of the Court to the appellant and the licensing authority.

4. At the hearing of the appeal the appellant may appear in person or by his agent authorized by him in writing or by a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court, but not otherwise. The licensing authority may appear by any person authorized by it in writing in that behalf or by a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court.

5. The Magistrate or Justices hearing the appeal may—

(a) In his or their discretion receive any evidence he or they may think fit (whether on oath or otherwise), and may act upon any statement, document, information, or matter which in his or their opinion may assist in the determination of the appeal whether or not the same would be legally admissible in a Court of law:

(b) In matters not expressly provided for in these regulations conduct the hearing in such manner as he or they think fit:

(c) From time to time adjourn the hearing or consideration or determination of the appeal as he or they think fit:

6. The determination of the Magistrate or Justices shall be notified to the appellant and the licensing authority by the Clerk of the Court by writing posted to them at their respective addresses as stated in the appeal.

SCHEDULE.

Appeal under Section 3 of the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Amendment Act, 1933.

I, _____, of _____, hereby appeal against the decision of [Name and address of licensing authority] in [State nature of decision] on the grounds [Set out grounds numbered in paragraphs].

The decision was received by me on the _____ day of _____, 19 _____.

Dated at _____, this _____ day of _____, 19 _____.

[Signature of appellant.]

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
