

rules for the time being in force for the receipt of sustenance payments from the Unemployment Fund. The expression "sustenance payments" as used in this paragraph shall include only payments of sustenance in cases where such payments are made in lieu of work or where work is not required in return therefor.

(c) Every person who on the due date of any quarterly instalment is employed under any relief scheme where wages are paid wholly or in part from the Unemployment Fund and where the workers are required to be concentrated in camps (whether controlled by local governing authorities, Government Departments, public or private companies, private individuals, or otherwise): Provided that if any person described in this paragraph is in receipt of wages on a full-time basis of not less than 10s. per day (if a married man) or 7s. 6d. per day (if a single man) or is employed on contract based on such rates he shall be excluded from the exemption herein provided.

(d) Every person who on the due date of any quarterly instalment is, and during the whole of the month immediately preceding the due date thereof has been, eligible under the rules for the time being in force for employment under any of the Unemployment Board's relief schemes whereby the workers thereunder are required or enabled to prospect for gold or other metals or minerals: Provided that if any worker described in this paragraph is in receipt of standard wages for full-time work, whether such wages are paid wholly or in part from the Unemployment Fund, he shall be excluded from the exemption herein provided.

2. EXTENT OF EXEMPTION PROVIDED BY THIS ORDER IN COUNCIL FROM OBLIGATION TO PAY GENERAL UNEMPLOYMENT LEVY.

(a) The exemption provided by this Order in Council shall not apply to any instalment of the general unemployment levy the due date of which is prior to the first day of August, nineteen hundred and thirty-four.

(b) The exemption provided by this Order in Council shall be of an amount of four shillings in each instalment of five shillings for which the exempted person would otherwise be liable.

(c) Nothing in this Order in Council shall affect the liability of any person to any fine or other penalty under the Unemployment Acts or the regulations thereunder.
