Amending Regulations under the Stock Act, 1908, for the Prevention of the Introduction into New Zealand of Diseases affecting Stock.—(Notice No. Ag. 3219.)

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 24th day of September, 1934.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Stock Act, 1908, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations in further amendment of the regulations for the prevention of the introduction into New Zealand of diseases affecting stock made under the said Act on the fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and published in the Gazette on the seventh day of the same month, at page 3420 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations").

REGULATIONS.

1. THESE regulations shall come into force on the date of the publication thereof in the Gazette.

2. Clause 40 of the principal regulations is hereby amended by inserting following paragraph (b) of subclause (2) thereof the following additional paragraph:—

"(c) Dogs may, if found on arrival to be free from disease, and not infected stock, and if the provisions of these regulations have been otherwise complied with, be exempted from quarantine at a quarantine ground, and may be allowed to land; subject, however, to their removal forthwith to the property of the owner and there held under the supervision of an Inspector in segregation from other stock for a period of sixty days commencing from the date of the issue of the relative permit to land."

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

NOTE.—The above amending Order in Council relates to the introduction of dogs from the United Kingdom, the only country apart from the States of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, and Tasmania in the Commonwealth of Australia from which their introduction into the Dominion is permitted.
