Appointment of a Deputy of the Governor-General.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, I, CHARLES, BARON BLEDISLOE, Member of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies—SEND GREETING.

WHEREAS by a Commission passed under the Royal Sign-manual and Signet bearing date at Saint James's the fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, His Majesty the King was pleased to appoint me to be Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies, with all and singular the powers granted to the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion in Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, as in the said Commission is particularly set forth :

And whereas in the said Letters Patent it is, among other things, provided that, in the event of the Governor-General having occasion to be temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of Government or from the Dominion, he may in every such case, by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Dominion, constitute and appoint the Lieutenant-Governor, or, if there be no such officer, then any other person, to be his Deputy during such temporary absence, and in that capacity to exercise, perform, and execute for and on behalf of the Governor-General during such absence, but no longer, all such powers and authorities vested in the Governor-General by the said Letters Patent as in and by such instrument are specified and
