Reciprocal Application of Workers' Compensation Act, 1922, to Irish Free State.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 3rd day of July, 1935.

Present :

THE HON. SIR ALFRED RANSOM PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section fifty-nine of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1922, it is enacted that where the Governor-General is satisfied that by the laws of any other country within the Dominions of the Crown compensation for accidents is payable to the relatives of a deceased worker although they are resident in New Zealand, he may, by Order in Council, declare that relatives resident in that country shall have the same rights and remedies under that Act as if resident in New Zealand:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and made under section fifty-three of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1908, but enuring under section fifty-nine of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1922, it was declared, inter alia, that relatives of a deceased worker resident in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland should have the same rights and remedies under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1908, as if resident in New Zealand:

And whereas doubts have arisen whether relatives of a deceased worker resident in the territory now comprising the Irish Free State have the same rights and remedies under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1922, as if resident in New Zealand:

And whereas it is expedient that such doubts should be resolved:
